Prologue

Now that the time has come at last
To bid our school adieu,
We think of all the years gone by,
The happiness and problems too.
With sad regrets we leave our school,
Our teachers and every friend.
Their patience and their guidance
Were with us until the end.
And now the time is here
To bid you all good-bye.
We'll forever remember you,
Dear "ole" Helena High.

Senior History

We entered school in September of 1942 with about forty students representing each of the three communities, Hurdle Mills, Mt. Tirzah, and Helena.

I guess our first grade teachers, Mrs. Bailey Dickerson, Miss Nannie Monk, and Mrs. Foushee, had a very hard task trying to get us accustomed to the idea of going to school and learning to read and write.

It's a wonder "The Little White School House" didn't fall down with all the bangs it received from the Hurdle Mills students during the second grade, but fortunately under the supervision of Mrs. Norma Whitfield it's still standing. Though not quite as rough as Hurdle Mills, the Mt. Tirzah and Helena students gave Miss Eloise Bryant and Mrs. Fox a bad time.

Our third grade teachers, Miss Alma Moore, Miss Eloise Bryant, and Mrs. Villines, thought we were old enough to have our first wiener roast.

Geography and long division, plus lessons in about five other books, were taught us in the fourth grade by Mrs. Addie Mae O'Briant, Miss Frances Crowder, Mrs. Reade and Mrs. Sattherfield.

Under Mrs. Lester Morrell, the Mt. Tirzah fifth grade students won the contest for the Person County Memorial Hospital fund and a chance to be in a parade and see a free show. That year, also, from Mrs. Hubert Hicks (formerly Miss Elizabeth Cates) and Miss Nina Rogers we learned a great deal of history, including the forty-eight states.

We, who were originally from Mt. Tirzah were more unfortunate than those from Hurdle Mills and Helena in the sixth and seventh grades, because we were divided into three groups under different teachers. These teachers for the 2 years were Mrs. Evelyn Painter, Mrs. Patricia Dancey Hall, Mrs. Harry Lemmond, and Mrs. Lelia Peed Jones. We were together for one day though that year, the day we went to Raleigh.

In the sixth grade the rest of us learned quite a lot about outlining under Miss Alma Moore and Miss Nina Rogers. Remember all those poems Mrs. W. K. Babington had us learning in the seventh grade and also the difficult time we had placing countries and cities on maps in geography? I guess Mrs. Cothran thought we were a rough gang at recess since the girls always came in with their clothes torn off from playing prison base.

The next year Mrs. Frances Kirby, Mrs. Hall, and Mrs. Noell prepared us for high school. I'm afraid they had a very hard time because most of us were thinking about the opposite sex more than our books. Besides preparing us for high school, our teachers also took on the responsibility of taking us on trips to Morehead Planetarium and Raleigh. Part of us had our first formal banquet that year.

Then came the day we had been looking forward to for a long time, the day we would enter high school. The home room teachers who helped us get accustomed to high school routine were Mr. A. L. Hendren, Mr.

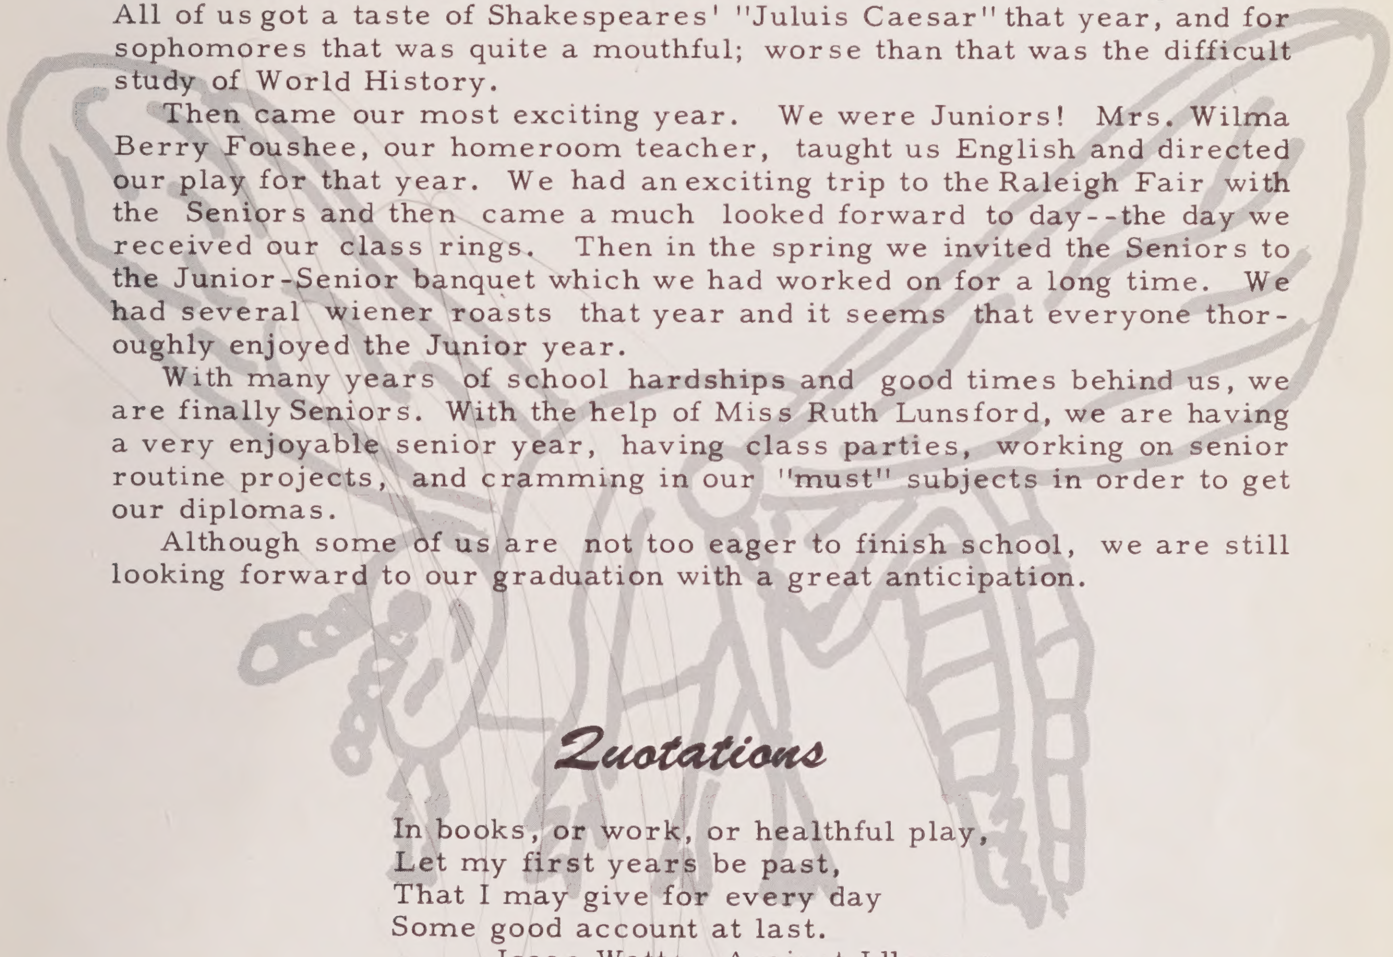
Glen Titus, and Mrs. Jack Gates. All of us took health and physical education that year. Remember how some of us looked forward to the outdoor classes when we could take calisthenic and ballet exercises? Most of us got our first knowledge of how basketball was played that year.

After a year of getting acquainted with high school, we were in the tenth grade. Our teachers for that year were Mr. Harry Jenkins, Mrs. Jack Gates, and Mr. Floyd Hicks Jr. Class trips taken that year were to the State Fair and to the Morehead Planetarium at Chapel Hill. All of us got a taste of Shakespeares' "Juluis Caesar" that year, and for sophomores that was quite a mouthful; worse than that was the difficult study of World History.

Then came our most exciting year. We were Juniors! Mrs. Wilma Berry Foushee, our homeroom teacher, taught us English and directed our play for that year. We had an exciting trip to the Raleigh Fair with the Seniors and then came a much looked forward to day--the day we received our class rings. Then in the spring we invited the Seniors to the Junior-Senior banquet which we had worked on for a long time. We had several wiener roasts that year and it seems that everyone thoroughly enjoyed the Junior year.

With many years of school hardships and good times behind us, we are finally Seniors. With the help of Miss Ruth Lunsford, we are having a very enjoyable senior year, having class parties, working on senior routine projects, and cramming in our "must" subjects in order to get our diplomas.

Although some of us are not too eager to finish school, we are still looking forward to our graduation with a great anticipation.



Quotations

In books, or work, or healthful play,
Let my first years be past,
That I may give for every day
Some good account at last.
Isaac Watts--Against Idleness

"If a man does not make new acquaintances as he advances through life, he will soon find himself alone. A man, Sir, should keep his friendship in constant repair."

Samuel Johnson

"Experience is the best of schoolmasters, only the school-fees are heavy."

Prophecies

As I gaze into my crystal ball,
I see an archway in a hall,
And coming through one at a time,
I see all the ol' classmates of mine.

First of all, I see the World's Greatest Wrestler, Bernice Lunsford, who gained that title while fighting during her high school days. I hear she defeated one of her schoolmates, B. M. to win this title.

Next in line is Vilma Lunsford. After being fired as B. K's. secretary, Vilma is running a "Bowling Alley" with six little bowling pins.

Looking again I see a picture of Duke University gym, and there on the sideline is their most ardent fan, Jack Lynch, a famous psychiatrist, cheering them on.

Next I find myself in Five Forks visiting at Vennie Lee Lunsford's "Lonely Heart's Club." What's this I hear B. C. has joined?

And who could this be I see? None other than "Jiggs" Hawkins and his "Hoochie Koochie" girls. They are the ones whose hearts he broke and wouldn't marry.

Next I see Franklin Wrenn introducing the pin-ups at the fair. I thought you were going to be a school teacher, but I always said you were a Ladies' Man.

And now I see Hugh Jones, who is a mighty disappointed person. It seems that after all the typing J. R. did for him, he still can't find the right key to her heart.

Looking once more I see Virginia Allen, who after jilting G. R. has settled down with the rich Duane Vanderbilt.

Almost in sight is my old classmate, Howard Rogers, who has recently been fired. It seems he lost his job in the liquor store, because he drank up all the profits.

And now coming in my vision is the greatest of the musicians, Thomas Rimmer. He is living in Nashville, Tenn. since he became the star announcer on the Grand Ole Opery.

Looking again I find myself in Hackensac, New Jersey, taking a driving lesson at Eunida Welch's "U-Need-A-Driving Lesson" School.

Say, whose ten gallon hat and house full of younguns in this? Why Ralph Whitfield, I see you turned cowboy, and are raising steers in Texas, instead of cows in N. C.

And now Janie Rimmer, without her nose in a French book, is reading True Love Magazines with H. J. Hey Janie, What happened to nurse's training?

And next I find Dean Hawkins. It seems that since his school days, he has become the manager of "The Blue Moon Night Club" in Chicago.

Oh! Things are getting interesting. Have you ever heard of such? I was attending the Stork Club and can you imagine who the star was? Ruby Garrett!! She is actually running Lilli St. Cyr out of business.

And who does this big filling station belong to? C. J. Stephens of course. We can understand, because he didn't have any luck around John Hill Store.

Shall we go to the movies? You'll never guess who's playing. Why it's Shirley Fogleman in her latest movie, "I'll HUFF and Puff and Blow Your House Down."

Coming into vision now is Aaron "Pete" Duncan. Since he lost his two girls (EAL) and (MB), he has become the City Junk man of Helena.

Alas! I find another broken hearted schoolmate of mine, T.U. Elliott. Something happened to that love affair with G. C., but he's going great guns at the Great Latin Quarters.

And who is this pictured in this cozy little domestic scene? Why none other than Kathleen Stanfield and R.W. sitting by the fire in their log cabin on their Texas ranch.

My crystal ball takes me now to Burlington to the Western Electric Company. There we see Frances Perkins and B. B. who is president of the company amidst a discussion in a most businesslike way.

Come now, Clara B. Harris, what happened to Harry? We heard of your divorce and your new prospect, E. M. and the taxi business.

And now I see June Garrett, or should I say, Mrs. G. A. I never thought that this lively girl and her husband would become the new Ozzie and Harriet of T.V.

Well, I never thought of it! Dale Rimmer and his former girl, J. C., now his wife, are running a hotel in New York. Say, are all of those little ones tenants or children?

Buz. Buz. Oh heck, the lines busy. It must be J. R. talking to Margie Day. Wonder what happened to R. G.?

Looking again I see Woody Painter. What's happened to the typist job? I hear you are now a player with the famous Harlem Globe Trotters.

Continuing my journey I see Barbara Mooney riding a jet plane with her husband E. B. Also in the jet are her children named 1,2,3,4,5,6,7,8,9, and 10.

So Vernon Huff decided to settle down with one girl. He is now singing "Juanita" to his best girl friend.

Next I see Shirley Whitfield has taken to the high seas instead of going through with that nurses' training she always wanted. How's navy life with T. L., Shirley?

The next Senior I see is Myrtle Eakes coming out of the Stork Club with H. C. They resembled M. M. and Rock Hudson.

And now who is this couple I see feeding chickens? Why it's Betty Blue Adcock and W. B. They always did look like a couple of love chick's.

Next in line is the new Roxboro Dog Catcher, Hilda Lunsford, chasing a fox around a tree.

Say, who is this lady farmer I see? Why it's none other than that old classmate of mine, Kay Loftis. She has finally landed E. H.

Wonder why all the crowd around the tent? Why, of course, it's Sue Betty Gill and her Parrott Brothers.

And now the latest M. M. is Eleanor Tillett. The whole world is taking up the famous poise of E. T.

Looking back once more, I see a big celebration for the welcoming home of General and Mrs. Curtis Clayton, the former Dorothy Dean Hawkins.

Finally succeeding in finishing three years at Watts, Polly has finally settled down with E. W. to be a nurse forever.

Last, but not the least, Juanita Lunsford has settled down with a rich farmer, V.H. since R. E. went broke.

Last Wills And Testaments

Now that we are approaching the conclusion of our high education, we, the seniors of 1954, wish to will and bequeath the following things to the following classes and individuals.

To the Freshmen: Our high school fun and our lasting spirit.

To the Sophomores: Our loyalty, co-operation, and our determination to carry on.

To the Juniors: Our place as Seniors and our devotion to Helena High.

I, Jack Lynch, do leave my ability to pull for a winning team like Duke to Mr. Hicks.

I, Virginia Allen, do hereby bequeath to Mr. Adams my intelligence. Believe me, you need it, Adams!

To Mr. Titus, June Garrett wills her ability to "shine desks". Carry on "ole" pal! You thought about it.

I, Franklin Wrenn, do will my knowledge to teach English to Mrs. Welch, and my "old Faithful Bus" no. 4 to Ted Slaughter.

I, Ralph Whitfield, do hereby leave to Mr. Titus my wig. I thought you might need it in your old age.

I, Howard Rogers, will my ability to smoke cigarettes to Burley Dunn.

Hilda Lunsford wills to Shirley McCullock her size 8 shoes. Hope they're not too tight, Shirley.

I, Dale Rimmer, bequeath my ability to drive a school bus to Carl Crabtree.

I, Kay Loftis, do will my driver's license to Evelyn Ann Lunsford.
Eleanor Tillett wills to Kay Perkins her love for the Hurdle Mills boys and to Shelba Crews her basketball position.
To Faydene Yancey, Betty Blue Adcock wills her nicotine fits. Calm down, Horace.
I, Frances Perkins, wish to will all the cigarettes I didn't smoke to Jean Owens and Barbara Ashley.
I, Shirley Whitfield, do hereby will my French seat to Jackie Cates. Portez sur.
I, Tommy Hawkins, bequeath my curly hair to Floyd Bradsher.
I, Barbara Mooney, will to Jean Berry my sharp brown eyes to watch for the sheriff. Beware Jean.
I, Vilma Lunsford, will my ability to play a banjo to Faydene Yancey.
Signed, sealed and witnessed this 1st day of January, 1954 by Virginia Allen.

Quotations

As turning the logs will make a dull fire burn, so changes of studies a dull brain.

Longfellow

One thing is forever good;
That one thing is success.
Emerson

If you wish in this world to advance,
Your merits you're bound to enhance,
You must stir it and stump, it,
And blow your own trumpet,
Or trust me, you haven't a chance.
W. S. Gilbert

Junior Class History

We, the Junior Class of 1954, entered high school in 1951. Our home room teachers, Mr. Burley Dunn, Mr. A. L. Hendran, and Mr. Glen Titus, helped us learn the high school routine. We soon learned that high school could really be fun. Physical education was the most enjoyable subject to many of us because part of the time was used in playing outdoors. The freshmen classes of the county all took part in the science exhibition at Roxboro. We sent delegates to the Recreational meeting at Roxboro also. At Hurdle Mills, we went to the Morehead Planetarium and to the Chesterfield Factory. Going to Bushy Fork to practice basketball each day was fun. We organized the Hurdle Hoppers Club that year.

Mr. Titus took his Helena freshmen on a wiener roast. The trip to the North Carolina State Fair was enjoyed by all.

At Mt. Tirzah, we had a high school wiener roast at Deep Creek. Afterwards most of us went swimming at Hilltop Swimming Pool.

In our Sophomore year Hurdle Mills and Mt. Tirzah joined Helena, with much opposition, and became a larger class. Strangers soon became friends in a successful school year with Mrs. B. D. Goolsby as our home room teacher. After several class meetings which were harrowing experiences for our class president Ted Slaughter, we decided to have a wiener roast. Sybil Dean was a very gracious hostess and we all enjoyed the occasion.

We began our eleventh year with Mrs. Cecil Foushee as our home room teacher. After her resignation, Mrs. H. H. Welch became the home room teacher for the junior girls and Mr. G. W. Adams home room teacher for the junior boys. Now as Juniors, we are looking forward to receiving our class rings which we ordered before Christmas.

In preparation for the Junior-Senior Banquet to be held in the spring we are running a concession stand at the basketball games and we plan to present the Junior Play "COMING 'ROUND THE MOUNTAIN" in a very short time.

Little Johnnie was saying his bedtime prayers in a low voice.
"I can't hear you, dear," said his mother.
"Wasn't talking to you," answered Johnnie.

Mrs. Welch: "Ray, don't use such bad words."
Ray Garrett: "But, Mrs. Welch, Shakespeare used them."
Mrs. Welch: "Well, don't play with him anymore."
